

- To love someone is nothing, to be loved by someone is something, but to be loved by the one you love is everything.
- To love is to risk not being loved in return. To hope is to risk pain. To try is to risk failure, but risk must be taken because the greatest hazard in life is to risk nothing.
- A kiss is a lovely trick designed by nature to stop speech when words become superfluous.

Ingrid Bergman

- The greatest pain that comes from love is loving someone you can never have.
- Love is a symbol of eternity. It wipes out all sense of time, destroying all memory of a beginning and all fear of an end.
- Love is like playing the piano. First you must learn to play by the rules, then you must forget the rules and play from your heart.
- If you judge people, you have no time to love them.

Mother Theresa

- All good things must come to an end, but I wouldn't want it to end with any other people or be at any other place.
- The worst thing you can do for love is deny it; so when you find that special someone, don't let anyone or anything to get in your way.
- The course of true love never did run smooth.

William Shakespeare

- If you're asking if I need you, the answer is forever. If you're asking if I will leave you, the answer is never. If you're asking what I value, the answer is you. If you asking if I love you, the answer is I DO.
- When I saw you, I was afraid to meet you... When I met you, I was afraid to kiss you... When I kissed you, I was afraid to love you. Now that I love you, I'm afraid to lose you.
- Love is the beauty of the soul.

Saint Augustine
